"The Government of the Republic of Somaliland is gravely concerned about the undemocratic and destabilizing events unfolding in our neighboring country Somalia".

The Government of the Republic of Somaliland is gravely concerned about the undemocratic and destabilizing events unfolding in our neighboring country Somalia.

Today's political stalemate is a testament to the oppressive, and tyrannical leadership of the Farmaajo regime, which is an absolute threat to the security and stability of the region and could plunge Somalia into a fresh civil war that may conceivably compel the displacement of thousands of civilians into the neighboring countries including the Republic of Somaliland.

We urge the resilient people of Mogadishu who have been caught in the crossfire of unrelenting terror of Al-Shabaab and Farmaajo's authoritarianism and his willful disregard of human rights to uphold their peace and stability.

We commend the United Nations Security Council's decision to keep the Arms Embargo in place and urge the international community to double its efforts to monitor and ensure no additional armaments are brought into Somalia in these uncertain times.

Since regaining its sovereignty, the Republic of Somaliland has been a shining democratic beacon

U.S Congressman Chris Smith applauds Somaliland elections

Smith applauds Somaliland elections

WASHINGTON, DC – Rep. Chris Smith, Ranking Member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee's Africa Subcommittee and Co-chair of the bipartisan Tom Lantos Human Rights Commission, issued a statement following elections held in Somaliland on May 31, 2021:

"I congratulate the people of Somaliland for holding successful parliamentary and council elections. Somaliland is fast becoming a democratic model not only for Somalia and the Horn, but for all of Africa."

Smith added, "While the international community has yet to recognize Somaliland as an independent state, by putting into practice consistent respect for civil and political rights as articulated in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights – including, importantly, Articles 18 and 19 – Somaliland will demonstrate to the world it deserves recognition. The United States government should engage substantively with Somaliland, as the United Kingdom and a number of European countries have, and African nations such as Kenya. Congress can lead the way in that regard by including a visit to Hargeisa and meeting publicly with Somaliland parliamentarians on any trips to the Horn of Africa."

Somaliland is a de facto autonomous State located in the Horn of Africa and an island of calm amid war-torn Somalia, although Somalia's government in Mogadishu claims de jure sovereignty over what it regards as a breakaway region.

REPUBLIC OF SOMALILAND
MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS &
INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

JAMHUURIYADDASOMALILAND
WASAARADA ARRIMAHA DIBEDA
& ISKAASHIGA CAALAMIGA AH

Republic of Somaliland
Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation
Statement – For immediate distribution
14th April 2021

The Government of the Republic of Somaliland is gravely concerned about the undemocratic and destabilizing events unfolding in our neighboring country Somalia.

Today's political stalemate is a testament to the oppressive, and tyrannical leadership of the Farmaajo regime, which is an absolute threat to the security and stability of the region and could plunge Somalia into a fresh civil war that may conceivably compel the displacement of thousands of civilians into the neighboring countries including the Republic of Somaliland.

We urge the resilient people of Mogadishu who have been caught in the crossfire of unrelenting terror of Al-Shabaab and Farmaajo's authoritarianism and his willful disregard of human rights to uphold their peace and stability.

We commend the United Nations Security Council's decision to keep the Arms Embargo in place and urge the international community to double its efforts to monitor and ensure no additional armaments are brought into Somalia in these uncertain times.

Since regaining its sovereignty, the Republic of Somaliland has been a shining democratic beacon in a region where free and fair elections and democratic values have been preserved.

Somaliland has successfully held subsequent free and fair elections since 2002 and peaceful transfers of power. Once again, on May 31st, the people of Somaliland are heading to the polls for local council and parliamentary elections.

Therefore, we urge the International Community to engage directly with the Republic of Somaliland and learn from our experience of keeping terrorism at bay, building our nation from the ground up and replicate our success of holding free and fair elections to Somalia and beyond.
